AVOIDING GUILTY PLEAS AND CRIMINAL CASE DISPOSITIONS THAT GIVE YOU LIFE-TIME CRIMINAL RECORDS

Criminal cases can make it hard to find a job or housing and to get ahead. It is important to know that if you are CONVICTED of certain types of offenses, you can NEVER seal your case. G.L. c. 276, § 100A. Cases that can NEVER be sealed after a guilty finding include:

- “Crimes against the Public” convictions including but not limited to giving a false name to police, perjury, witness intimidation, or aiding escape from jail (G.L. c. 268); or
- Some firearms convictions, including but not limited to having a firearm in a vehicle, selling ammunition or a gun without a firearms license, or buying a gun from an unlicensed dealer (G.L. 140, §§ 121-131 H ); or
- State ethics convictions such as bribes to public officials (G.L. c. 268A); or
- Certain sex offense convictions. If a person was ever registered as a Level 2 or Level 3 sex offender, the law (G.L. c. 276, § 100A) provides that the person can NEVER seal convictions for certain sex offenses (i.e. rape of a child, assault with intent to rape, drugging a person for sex and other offenses as defined by Section 178C of Chapter 6 of the Mass. General Laws).

Important. Please note that the Supreme Judicial Court found this restriction unconstitutional as applied to a person who was no longer required to register as a sex offender.<sup>1</sup> This means that if the 15 year waiting period has passed, a person who is no longer in the sex offender registry can ask to seal the sex offense convictions through the Commissioner of Probation’s office at One Ashburton Place in Boston.

However, if your case for any of the above offenses ended in a dismissal, a nolle prosequi (the prosecutor dropped the case), or a “not guilty” finding, the case is eligible to be sealed. Resisting arrest convictions are also no sealable due to a change in the law I 2018.

STEP ONE. Get a copy of your criminal record report (known as “CORI” or “CARI”).

If your case is closed, see Booklet 1 in this series of booklets for information about how to get a copy of your own criminal record report so that you check if your case is sealable.

IMPORTANT: If you are not a citizen, you should get advice on the effect of your criminal case on your immigration status. If you are not a citizen or are living here without legal documents, a conviction or a continuance without a finding (CWO) can be grounds for exclusion, removal or deportation.

STEP TWO. Check the attached list of public justice crimes and other never sealable offenses to figure out if you are charged with or were convicted of one of these crimes.

STEP THREE. If your case is still going on, ask your lawyer if your case will be sealable in the future if you are found guilty or you plead guilty. You should carefully consider whether your case may become a never sealable case if it ends in a conviction BEFORE you make a decision about going to trial or pleading guilty. If your case is closed, you might ask your prior attorney or another lawyer to try to re-open it. However, it is often very hard to re-open a closed case.

IMPORTANT. If you are not a citizen, remember that immigration policies are changing under a newer administration and may keep changing. Getting convicted of a crime or agreeing to a “continuance without a finding” (CWOFF) often has serious immigration consequences. If you are not a citizen and were convicted of a crime, including but not limited to a never sealable crime, talk to an immigration attorney about the effect of the case on your immigration status.

BEFORE SEALING YOUR CRIMINAL RECORD

Once your criminal case is sealed, you can no longer look at or get copies of your court file at the courthouse. Before you seal cases, it is a good idea to get certified copies of the criminal complaint and dockets sheets in case you need them in the future. Otherwise, you will have to file a motion to unseal the case to get copies of documents, or request help from the Office of the Commissioner of Probation at One Ashburton Place in Boston to unseal your records.
